WELCOME TO THE BROMLEY (KENT) FESTIVAL
OF MUSIC AND SPEECH

As I announced last year Bromley Festival 2024 would be my last as Chairman/Secretary but I am pleased to be able to report that two 'willing' people came forward and hence Bromley Festival 2025 will take place.

Festival 2024 was another success with plenty of entries in most sections although the Guitar and Singing sections could do with some more entries. The venues were well received as were the comments of the adjudicators.

I should like to thank you all for your support over the past years and please do continue to support our new Chairmen/Secretaries (they have decided to run it jointly). I shall still be in the background to assist them in any way I can and wish them both well in their new venture. It was a case of find a busy person and they will take it on !

For those of you who were not at the prizewinners concert I was presented as a thank you some models of Piglet, Winnie the Pooh and Tigger for my garden. I already had Eeyore and it was felt he was feeling lonely ! I have also planted a really pretty rhododendron in my garden so there is plenty to remind me of the time I have spent in recent years. Thank you.

With all good wishes for Bromley Festival 2025.

Regards

Monica Sanderson

WELCOME TO THE BROMLEY (KENT) FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND SPEECH

Under New Management but with familiar faces.

We have both been helping with the Festival for a number of years in many background roles, by assisting Monica and all the Committee make the Festival run as smoothly as possible.

Monica has done a wonderful job over the years having been thrust into the role unexpectedly 11 years ago but has handled everything with grace and poise. We are grateful she has agreed to stay in the role of advisor as we are going to need all the guidance and support we can get.

The Festival is only possible because a dedicated team invest their time and efforts freely to bring together such a wide and varied selection of classes in music and speech which culminates in a month of fantastic music and drama. Volunteer helpers man a number of venues, assist adjudicators, direct entrants, teachers and supporters and do a myriad of other jobs to make the Festival happen. Their help is greatly appreciated.

Two of our Committee members, Annette Barber and Jean Lines, have sadly passed away in the last year. We have been very grateful for their help and guidance over the years and they will be greatly missed.

Since Covid the number of strings, wind, brass and guitar entries have fallen so this year we have decided to amalgamate these sections together and have them on one weekend with one adjudicator in order to make it more fun for entrants and have better audiences to enjoy the music. Entries will still be sent to the relevant section heads.

It has been our privilege and joy in the time we have been involved with the Festival to see performers flourish and blossom over the years. Many take the lessons they learn here to give them courage and confidence in the future, this is true not just of our younger entrants but all participants.

We look forward to meeting many of you and hope you will put your entries in early. If you have questions we will reply but as we are all volunteers please be patient with us.

We hope you will support us in helping to make this a wonderful year with lots of entries, enjoyed in good spirit by all.

With best wishes and hopes for the 2025 Festival.

BROMLEY FESTIVAL

Bromley Festival was inaugurated at a public meeting in October 1928. The then Mayor of Bromley, Alderman E. Ford Duncanson, was the first Chairman and expressed the hope that it would be a 'Festival for Bromley people run by Bromley people'. To raise funds, a Grand Inaugural Concert was held in May 1929 at the Methodist Central Hall, London Road, and several distinguished local musicians including the Misses Marjorie and Dorothy Whyte of Ripley fame, were involved. The first competitions were held in November 1929 with classes for Pianoforte, Strings, Solo Singing, Choirs and Elocution. Many of the trophies date from that time.

The Festival was held each November until 1939 when, on the outbreak of World War II, the Committee decided to postpone activities until further notice. The next Council Meeting took place in July 1945 and it was decided to re-establish the Festival in March 1946 at Stratford House School. Since then the Festival has been held annually in various halls and churches in the Borough. The present name – the Bromley (Kent) Festival of Music and Speech – was adopted in 1978 and the Festival received charitable status in 1983.

The early records show a strong interest in Piano, Strings and Singing but in recent years there has been a marked increase in the entries for Woodwind Instruments, including Recorders. These changes reflect the greater variety of instrumental teaching in schools today. It is one of the few Festivals in the country to include Harp classes. The Speech and Drama Section has also flourished and represents a greater number of entries each year.

The Festival receives many entries each year, which proves that it is widely valued as a platform for the performing arts in Bromley. We look forward to hearing many fine performances and are most grateful for your interest.

SPECIAL AWARDS

Star Performer Music Awards – A trophy and a cheque for £200 will be presented to the overall winner from the Music Section at the final competitive session on Sunday 23 March 2025, venue to be confirmed.

The Star Music Performer will be selected by a special Adjudicator. Those performing at that session will have been recommended by the appropriate Music Adjudicators. All the finalists will receive cash prizes. Admission to this session is FREE and the public is warmly invited to attend.

Jennifer Molyneux Star Speech Award - The Star Speech Performer will be selected during the Festival by the Speech Adjudicators. He/she must be aged 14 or over by the end of the academic year and have entered at least TWO solo classes, one of which must be either Public Speaking or Shakespeare Solo and attained Honours/Distinction marks. They will be presented with the Jennifer Molyneux Prize at the Star Performer Music Awards.

Celia Yeo Memorial Award – Will be awarded to the most promising young performer in Year 6 & below.

Concert Invitation – Selected prize winners will be offered the opportunity to perform in a prizewinners concert.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The Bromley Festival exists

- To advance the education of the public in the Arts, in particular Music, Speech and Drama in all their branches.
- To promote an annual competitive Festival which provides opportunities for amateurs of all ages to perform publicly and be assessed, encouraged and inspired by acknowledged experts.
- To enable competitors and their audiences to appreciate more fully the value of high standards of technique, presentation and repertoire.

BROMLEY (KENT) FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND SPEECH CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for children and young people each year.

The Federation, and our member Festivals, are committed to ensuring safe environments for children and young people and believe that it is always unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people, by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them.

This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of festival members
- to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in November in line with Safe Network guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.

CREATING SAFER FESTIVALS FOR EVERYONE

The Federation and its member Festivals use the following policies and procedures to create Safer Festivals for everyone:

1. A single, definitive Child Protection Policy adopted by all Federation Festivals.
2. One or more designated Festival Safeguarding Officers (FSO) appointed for each Federation Festival.: Name: Geraldine McBain Phone: 01689 820322
3. Best practice advice in the form of Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection leaflets, with support and training for all Festival staff and volunteers. Including clear reporting procedures for anyone with a concern about a child.
4. Appropriate recruitment and induction procedures for all new Festival staff and volunteers responsible for providing safe environments for everyone attending / performing at a Federation Festival.
5. All Festival personnel will be clearly identified. All teachers/parents/guardians/carers are asked to report all incidents of any nature to the Festival. All reported incidents will be handled in accordance with the Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection best practice advice. In addition we will ensure the availability of a quiet area / room where concerns can be expressed in private.
6. For the duration of a Festival all teachers/parents/guardians/carers are responsible for the continuous care and supervision of their own children/pupils. If they are unable to attend personally, they must delegate their responsibilities to an identified adult and ensure that their children/pupils are aware of the identity and name of the person responsible for their care. This includes supervision throughout all Festival venues, practice and changing areas that may be provided. The Festival cannot take responsibility for any property left unattended.
7. No unauthorised photography, audio or video recording of children and young people is allowed in the performance areas at our Festivals. Where parents/guardians/carers do not wish photos to be taken at all, then the responsible adult attending should ensure that their child is not included in official photos.
8. Some children and vulnerable adults may have specific needs in order to take part. If this is the case we ask the responsible teachers/parents/guardians/carers to contact the Festival Section Secretaries prior to arrival. The Festival actively seeks wherever possible to meet these needs, but must know beforehand in order to prepare support – or to advise that help cannot be provided on this occasion.
9. The Festival's Child Protection Policy and approach to Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone is published explicitly in our Syllabus, Programme and Website. By completing and signing the entry form all parents / guardians / carers and teachers of competitors under 18 (or vulnerable adults of any age) confirm that they give (or have obtained) the necessary consents for the competitors to take part in the Festival. Without consent the entry to the Festival cannot be accepted.

RULES

1. Eligibility of Competitors

Except where marked 'Open', the competitions are intended for amateurs. Professionals are however allowed to take part:-

- | | |
|--------------------|-------------------------|
| a) as Conductors | c) in Open Classes |
| b) as Accompanists | d) in Senior Orchestras |

An amateur is someone who does not derive, or has not derived, his/her livelihood from the branch of performance, defined by the class title, in which he/she seeks to enter the Festival. In any amateur ensemble all members must adhere to this definition.

2. Entry Forms

Entries must be made on the official forms in the centre of the Syllabus obtainable online or from the Hon. Secretary, Committee members, libraries and music shops. Competitors who enter for more than one class in the same Section should use a single entry form. Entries for classes in different Sections must be made on separate forms. Multiple entry forms should be used by teachers when entering a number of pupils in the same Section. Entry forms may be photocopied.

Entry forms should be sent to the address shown in the Syllabus at the head of the appropriate section. Competitors will be notified by email.

3. Age Limits - SCHOOL YEARS WILL APPLY FOR ALL PERFORMERS 18 AND UNDER. See Choirs for additional rules page 23.

4. Entry Fees

Entry fees are as stated for each Class in the Syllabus. They must be sent with Entry Forms and cannot be returned. If a receipt is required, a stamped addressed envelope should be supplied. Cheques should be made payable to "Bromley (Kent) Festival of Music and Speech" or by online payment. Class and child's name required as reference.

5. Closing date for entries is 21 January 2025. Late entries WILL NOT be accepted.

6A. Photocopying

In all 'Own Choice' classes a copy of the test piece must be provided for the Adjudicator on the day. This does not apply to Set Test pieces, copies of which are provided for the Adjudicator by the Festival.

Competitors are reminded that it is against the law to reproduce copyright materials by any means, e.g. hand-written, typed or photocopied, without the permission of the copyright owner (usually the publisher). The Festival will not accept the use of reproduced copies of music or speech items unless accompanied by written permission from the copyright owner.

However, when an 'Own Choice' item is selected from a publication containing several different works and is not published separately, one copy may be made for the specific use of the Adjudicator provided that the competitor has already purchased his/her own printed copy. The Adjudicator's copy will be retained and destroyed by a Festival official immediately after the event. This permission specifically does not apply to set test pieces. Performers should use the printed copy. Photocopies may be used by accompanists, official or personal, provided they are surrendered to the Adjudicator's Steward after the performance.

6B. Own Choice Items

In all 'Own Choice' Classes (except where specified), the title and composer/author of the piece MUST be stated on the entry form. Entries will not be accepted without this information and the subsequent change of a piece is NOT permitted.

6C. Time Limits

Time limits must be strictly observed. Competitors who exceed the time limit may be stopped and/or penalised.

6D. Standard of Music

Any competitor entering a piece of a higher grade than stated in the syllabus will be penalised.

6E. Prompting

No prompting is permitted unless authorised by the Adjudicator.

6F. Repetition of Items

A competitor may not perform the same item more than once, with the exception of the Star Performer Competition.

No competitor may present an item, which they have performed and for which they have been awarded a medal in the Bromley Festival in the previous 3 years.

6G. Infringements

In the event of an infringement of the Rules, e.g. change of 'Own Choice' pieces or exceeding the time limit, the competitor will receive an oral and written adjudication and a 'Performer' certificate and no numerical grade.

7. Accompanists

No recorded accompaniments are permitted. Competitors may provide their own accompanists, but an Official Accompanist is available for Solo Singing, Choral, String and Wind Classes. If this service is required, it should be stated on the Entry Form, and the fee for each Class enclosed.

Individual	£8.00	Groups	£12.00

A copy of 'Own Choice' music must be sent to the Official Accompanist by 1st February. In the case of Strings & Ensembles, Woodwind/Brass & Ensembles & Performance Classes, the copies must be sent by Tuesday 21st January. Photocopies may be sent, provided a printed copy is available on the day (see Rule 6A). The name of the Competitor and the Class Number must be clearly stated on the music. The copy should not be folded, and adequate postage must be affixed.

If the accompanist does not receive the music in advance, he/she reserves the right to refuse to play. The Festival may appoint an accompanist other than the official one when necessary.

As there will be no time for rehearsal on the day of the competition, competitors wishing to rehearse must make their own arrangements with the Official Accompanist in advance and an additional fee may be charged.

8. Programmes

The Programme of the competitions will be arranged immediately after the entry list is closed. The order of performance will be determined by ballot and competitors will be informed of the date, place and approximate time of their Classes.

9. Attendance

Competitors should answer to their names when called to perform, otherwise they forfeit their right to compete.

10. Adjudicators' Decisions

Adjudicators may stop a performance when their judgements have been formed. Their decisions are final. Competitors, their relatives and friends, are not allowed to speak or write to an Adjudicator before, during or after a competition, except at the express invitation of the Adjudicator.

Enquiries or complaints should be made to the Hon. Secretary in writing as soon as possible after the Festival.

11. Alterations

The Committee reserves the right to cancel, amalgamate or divide Classes, to alter dates, and to appoint other Adjudicators, if unforeseen circumstances render it necessary. If Classes are cancelled, the entry fees will be refunded.

The right is also reserved of refusing an entry without assigning a reason.

12. Pupils of an Adjudicator

Pupils of an Adjudicator may not compete in any Class which is judged by that Adjudicator.

13. Certificates, Marks and Awards

Certificates will be awarded as follows:-

Distinction	90 marks and above	Merit	80 – 83 marks
Honours	84 – 89 marks	Performer	75 – 79 marks

Marks

90 and above	An exceptional performance, technically and artistically.
87 - 89	An excellent performance, technically and artistically.
84 - 86	A convincing performance, technically and artistically.
81 - 83	A capable performance showing some artistic appreciation and technical ability.
78 - 80	A performance showing development of technique and/or communication.
75 - 77	A performance limited in its communication.

Medallions in coloured metal will be awarded where stated in this Syllabus:

Gold (1st), Silver (2nd), Bronze (3rd), provided that at least Honours standard (84 marks) has been achieved in Junior classes.

Appropriate coloured medallions will be awarded for senior classes.

Cups and trophies will also only be awarded to competitors if they have achieved at least Honours standard.

When a competitor wins the same trophy for 3 consecutive years, he/she will be presented with a commemorative plaque.

14. Mark Sheets & Certificates

Adjudicators' Remark Sheets, Awards and Certificates should be collected by the competitors concerned at the conclusion of each Class.

15. Cups & Trophies

Winners of trophies may have them engraved at their own expense. Trophies must be returned by 1 February 2026 to the addresses below, undamaged and clean. Trophies are not covered by Festival insurance. Winners should therefore arrange cover with their own insurers.

16. Recording

THE USE OF AUDIO OR VIDEO RECORDERS, CAMERAS AND MOBILE PHONE RECORDINGS BY MEMBERS OF THE AUDIENCE IS STRICTLY FORBIDDEN AT ANY SESSION OF THE FESTIVAL.

17. Behaviour of Children

The Committee cannot be held responsible for unsupervised children. Parents and teachers must take full responsibility for all their children and pupils while on Festival premises, and must not allow them to stray from the designated areas. To ensure suitable conditions for the performers, we ask that very young children are not brought to the Festival.

18. Safety of Performers

It is necessary for teachers and parents to be aware of their responsibilities in entering any performers with limited physical capabilities or special needs, bearing in mind the limitations imposed by the stage and surrounding environment. The teacher or parent should pass on to the adjudicator in writing, via the organiser, any such information that would impact on the adjudicator's work.

19. Injury & Damage

The Committee does not hold itself responsible for any injuries sustained by any performer or member of the public whilst on Festival premises. It will also not be held responsible for loss or damage to property which may occur during the Festival.

20. Data Protection

Personal data from the Entry Forms will be held for the sole purpose of running the Festival.

Note to Teachers

The Committee asks teachers to ensure that the parents of competitors are aware of Rules 16 and 17 in particular. Please see additional rules for Speech Classes on pages 47 & 48.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Bromley Festival (Registered Charity No. 286229) is a competitive Music, Speech and Drama festival, run by volunteers and registered with the Charity Commission. It is a member of the British and International Federation of Festivals.

This privacy policy explains how we use any personal information we collect about you.

We collect information about you when you register to perform in the Festival, volunteer as a steward or we engage you as an adjudicator. We will only ask for such information as is necessary for the efficient administration of the festival. (We do not collect 'sensitive personal data' unless there is a legitimate reason for this – where an entrant may need support to participate in a class).*

Access to this data will be restricted to those personnel who administer the Festival.

We want to make sure your personal information is accurate and up to date and all reasonable efforts will be made to ensure this is the case. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

The Festival will not pass collected data to any third party unless the law requires us to do so or if it is to enable the Festival to fulfil its constitutional purpose. It should be noted that only the names, year groups and schools* of competitors will appear in the Festival Programme.

*(This privacy policy only applies to our website, so when you link to other websites from it, you should read their privacy policies)

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. This can be obtained, without charge, by application to the Data Protection Officer.

Our Privacy Promise

We promise:

- To keep your data safe and private
- Not to sell your data
- Not to share with third parties without your specific permission

Collecting your personal information

We can get your personal information when you:

- Register an entry to the Festival
- Volunteer at the Festival
- Are engaged as an Adjudicator at the Festival
- Ask us for more information about the Festival, or contact us with a question or complaint

- Pay for an advert in the programme
- Give us bank details to enable us to transfer money to your bank account (eg. for a payment or refund)

The personal information we collect

It includes (but isn't limited to) the following:

- Your name, address, phone number, date of birth and email address
- Your bank account number and sort code
- Your contact with us – such as a note of a call you make to us, an email or letter you send to us or other records of any contact you have with us

Using your personal information

Names and ages will be published in the Festival Programme

We may also include a list of cup/prize winners

Sharing your personal information

Apart from the published programme, we will not share your personal information with a third party without your specific permission

Keeping your personal information secure

Access to your personal information will be restricted to those personnel who administer the Festival. We'll store your information for as long as we have to by law. If there's no legal requirement, we'll only store it for as long as we need it. We'll also keep some personal information for a reasonable period, for example, to send a syllabus for the following year's Festival.

You should be aware that communications over the internet (such as emails) aren't secure unless they've been encrypted. We can't accept responsibility for any unauthorised access or loss of personal information that's beyond our control.

Your privacy rights

You can write to us at any time to get a copy of the personal information we hold about you. The request, in writing, should be addressed to the Data Protection Officer.

THE MUSIC ADJUDICATORS

STAR AWARD – GEOFFREY LYNN

In 1968, Geoffrey Lynn entered Edinburgh Medical School. After two miserable years he left and shortly after entered the Royal College of Music.

Three years later, he had won several awards including the top violin prize.

While at college he started freelancing with various orchestras and teaching at the Royal College of Music junior department.

He was then offered a position in the first violin section of the London Philharmonic where he remained for forty six years.

More recently, he spent several years teaching at Sevenoaks School and is now busy teaching privately at home in Bromley.

CHOIRS AND SINGING – JANE WILKINSON

Jane trained as a soprano at the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama and then at the Royal College of Music where she won many competitions and awards.

She performs solo art song recitals across the country and has toured South Africa, Europe and America. She is Head of Singing at Chelsea Academy and singing tutor at Imperial College, London. A former member of the National Youth Choirs of Great Britain she now conducts New Malden Voices and New Malden Youth Choir.

Jane has premiered many contemporary operas and frequently works alongside composers on new works for the stage and for recordings. She has performed oratorios and concerts at Edinburgh Festival, Royal Albert Hall and many other distinguished venues.

Jane leads vocal masterclasses and workshops internationally and often runs 'audition technique' days for aspiring singers. Her voice has featured in a wide variety of albums and recordings from children's repertoire to contemporary folk rock.

PIANOFORTE – SIMON LANE

Simon Lane has gained recognition for his compelling and sensitive performances, and has collaborated with many of the world's most exciting musicians including Danielle de Niese, Iestyn Davies, Guy Johnston and Jack Liebeck. His CD release with cellist Philip Higham was selected as Strad Magazine's 'CD of the month', and Gramophone Magazine stated that "What is most striking about this performance is that, thanks to the brilliance of Simon Lane at the piano, the virtuosity of the piano-writing is thrillingly brought out".

Alongside frequent performances in London's Wigmore Hall, Simon has appeared in venues such as the Berlin Philharmonie and the Queen Elizabeth Hall, and more widely across Europe and North America. Festival engagements include the Bachfest Leipzig, La Festival de Musique de Menton, the Dubrovnik and Ljubljana Summer Festivals, and the Leeds Lieder, Ryedale and Lichfield Festivals in the UK. More recently, he has made frequent visits to Norway and Finland, where he particularly enjoys midnight swimming!

Simon studied at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester and the Royal Academy of Music in London, and his teachers have included Mark Ray, Dina Parakhina, Michael Dussek, Julius Drake and Roger Vignoles.

As well as adjudicating piano competitions at schools such as Bryanston and St.Paul's Girls' School, Simon is a committed teacher and chamber music coach, and has been Head of Keyboard at Whitgift School in Croydon since 2016. He is also a visiting teacher and chamber music coach at Lancing College in West Sussex.

Among other early influences on his career, Simon is indebted to the late Mark Ray, to whom he owes a large share of his love of music.

STRINGS, WOODWIND & BRASS, CLASSICAL GUITAR – PAUL GOBEY

Paul studied organ and piano at the Royal College of Music, London and graduated from Pembroke College, Cambridge with a Masters in Choral Studies in 2011.

He taught at various London schools, first at Forest School (Snaresbrook) and later as Director of Music at St Dunstan's College (Catford), where he took the choir on several international performing tours. After teaching at Colfe's School (Greenwich), he became a freelance musician and has been an examiner for ABRSM since 2010.

Paul has been Organist of the Norwegian Church in Rotherhithe since 1990. He is active in the Worshipful Company of Musicians, where he has served as President of the Company's Livery Club, and is Chairman of the Anglo-Norse Society charity.

HARP – LISE VANDERMISSEN

Belgian harpist Lise Vandersmissen travels with her modern pedal harp and her Italian Triple Harp around Europe and Asia. She was one of the 2023 Artists at the main classical radio in Belgium: Klara Radio (De Twintigers), and won the Belgian classical radio competition for chamber music with her Aglica Trio.

She recently completed a six-month residency in Hong Kong where she was teaching and performing at the international harp academy HK Harp Music. Career highlights include performing the world premiere of Mark-Anthony Turnage's "Four Meditations" which was dedicated to her, being the Artist in Residence of the first edition of the early music festival "Intra Muros", and performing the Händel Harp Concerto on the Italian Triple Harp during the London Händel Festival with the London Händel Orchestra.

In 2023, she released her first solo album TRANSFORMED (CJM Flanders) which consists of her own transcriptions for the pedal harp. This summer, her second solo album will be released: TRE, an album played on the Italian Triple Harp, under Etcetera Records and funded by the Belgian government.

Lise won Prizes in international harp competitions including the First Prize at the 5th International Harp Competition in Slovenia and the Second Prize at the International Szeged Harp Competition in Hungary. She received the Culture Prize in Bilzen, her hometown. Lise's orchestral work includes the Royal Northern Sinfonia, English Touring Opera, London Händel Orchestra and La Nuova Musica. Lise graduated Magna cum Laude from her Bachelor's Degree at LUCA School of Arts, Belgium with Lieve Robbroeckx, and with Distinction from her Master's Degree at the Guildhall School of Music & Drama, London with Imogen Barford. Upon graduation, she became a Fellow at the Guildhall for two years.

Lise lives with her harps on a blue houseboat on the London canals. When she is not playing the harp, she loves to knit jumpers and run along the canal.

THE SPEECH ADJUDICATORS

JANINE DIAMOND

Janine participated in her first festival at the age of five and, prior to her professional training, she was a committed member of the amateur theatre scene. She trained at the Arts Educational School, London, graduating with a BA (Hons) in Musical Theatre. She completed an MA in Performance Research and, in 2021, was awarded a PhD from the University of Bristol. As a teacher and freelance performance coach with over 15 years experience, Janine has taught students whose ages have ranged from two to seventy-five and continues to enjoy leading drama, musical theatre and dance workshops and masterclasses in vocational, academic and cooperate environments.

As a professional performer, voiceover artist and choreographer, she has toured nationally and performed in London's West End. She is an Associate Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (AFHEA); TaPRA (The Theatre and Performance Research Association); and the Society of Theatre Research (STR).

Since learning and reciting her very first poem, Janine has been dedicated to performance and she is delighted to be an Adjudicator member of The British and International Federation of Festivals. She looks forward to adjudicating Bromley Festival participants to support, encourage and celebrate their work.

JENNY THORNTON

Jenny trained at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, gaining awards for Character Acting and Most Promising Teacher. She has led the Performing Arts Teams in a large comprehensive school, been an Assistant Principal for Edexcel, LAMDA examiner and now enjoys running her own Performance Centre with ages from 4 years to adults delivering drama, dance and musical theatre and also writing.

Her play called "Gone" gained a Commended when performed at The Orange Tree Theatre in Richmond as did her most recent play "Young Love". She was delighted when LAMDA chose two of her pieces for their new acting anthology.

Her most recent teaching experience is working in a state school as a peripatetic teacher as part of her "Outreach" programme. Jenny says "Drama is a life skill that changed me from a stuttering introvert to a confident individual. We can give our children no better opportunity." She is looking forward to adjudicating at the 2025 Bromley Festival.

LOUISE MANDERS LLAM ALAM GODA MSTSD (Adj)

Louise was born in Westcliff on Sea and first trod the boards when only five days old and has never looked back.

Her varied and interesting professional theatrical career began with Haymarket Stage Productions progressing from stage management to acquiring her Equity card as an actress. She enjoyed touring the UK and appearing in all aspects of theatre including repertory and musicals, as well as appearing on television and in films.

Louise is presently not only an adjudicator for the British and International Federation of Festivals and the Guild of Drama Adjudicators, but is also an adjudicator member of the Society of Teachers of Speech and Drama. She was Artistic Director of the Phoenix Youth Theatre in Southend, formerly the New Focus Theatre for many years. Louise's extensive work as an adjudicator has taken her all over the UK and abroad. She has adjudicated for festivals in Sri Lanka, Hong Kong and Canada.

During the pandemic, Louise also adjudicated online. She runs workshops and master classes, directs plays (including open air productions) and musicals, devises original drama compositions, writes poetry and has written many musical plays for children and students. She teaches speech, drama, musical theatre, mime and dance drama to all ages of students, including adults and specialises in the LAMDA examinations.

Louise is an experienced theatre director and even finds time to dance flamenco! A festival is a celebration and enables all entrants to bring their creativity and enthusiasm to fruition. Louise is really looking forward to returning to the Bromley (Kent) Festival and sharing in these celebrations.

PETER DAYSON

Peter started his career as an actor in stage, television and film, progressing to writing, directing and producing. He ran an International Award Winning Community Cross-Over Project which took children and students from across the London Boroughs and performed in the West End, transferring to Ohio, U.S.A. This involved artists from the industry working with local actors and special needs students to produce an innovative and unique international award winning production concept.

Peter has appeared in many TV series and sit-coms and in several Dr Who episodes with five different Doctors. He has written several plays, 8 musicals, show-cased in the West End and is currently working on a spy-thriller. As a Director Peter has been responsible for many productions, was Artistic Director for Stafford Gatehouse for 8 years, worked for Disney as a Director and Executive Producer and, also worked for Really Useful Theatre Groups. Peter has directed over 50 pantomimes all over the country with such artists as Charlie Drake, Frankie Howard, Hinge and Bracket and many soap stars from all over the industry. Later this year he is directing two pantomimes in Leeds and Birmingham and is currently working on a film script 'Vavasour', for pre production in 2025.

Peter's passion is working with children, students and young performers, particularly special needs to nurture, encourage, support and develop them with perhaps a career in the industry or just 'Life Skills' and is looking forward to adjudicating at the 2025 Bromley Festival.

ADDITIONAL RULES FOR SPEECH CLASSES

Copyright and Indemnity

- a. Competitors who perform 'Own choice' poetry, prose or solo dramatic items have no need to seek copyright permission to do so, because the Bromley Festival has an Agreement with the Authors' Licensing and Collecting Society under which the authors concerned are directly remunerated by the Society. To qualify for such copyright indemnity, competitors must announce the title and author of their items, and the text of the original (words or gender of the character) must not be changed in any way.
- b. Duologues and group dramatic activities are not covered by the Agreement in a. above, and competitors in the Classes concerned must obtain permission to perform from the authors and/or publishers, pay any necessary royalty fees, and present the receipt to the Adjudicator. These Classes are marked * (D7, D10-D11, D69-D74) Competitors are reminded to apply in plenty of time for licences as permission can take up to 6 weeks and that it should be approved before entries are submitted in January. Plays published before 1948 are exempt from copyright.
- c. NO ALTERATION MAY BE MADE TO PUBLISHED TEXTS. UK Copyright law does not allow for adaptations.
- d. All items to be performed from memory except in Reading Classes.
- e. Teachers should select material suitable to the ages of the performers, bearing in mind that younger children may be present in the Hall.

- f. Simple costumes and hand-held props may be used for duologues and acted scenes (not verse-speaking). The stage must be set by the performers and cleared within the given time limit.
- g. Additional rules for Musical Theatre Classes on page 60.
- h. Photocopies of poems and extracts are no longer covered by the Festival Licence. Should you wish the adjudicator to have a copy you will need to either hand write your entry or provide a physical book. Copies of the poetry books for D21 and D22 will be provided.
